I ask that all energy centres from the heart downwards are fully connected to the sovereign energy of the earth. I ask for an alignment with Crystalline Grid of the Earth and all the healing, transformative and guiding powers therein. Unification...

Spirit, I request a unification of my conscious, unconscious and higher conscious minds. I request a unification with my Family of Selves. My ego selves and my shadow selves, both light and dark. I request a unification within all sub-personality aspects within my Family of Selves so that they work together in greater harmony and purpose. The purpose of spiritual connection, the purpose of world service, what serves the Higher Self, what serves my highest timeline.

Ascension...

Spirit, I now fully choose the path of ascension, I now fully choose to raise my vibration. I choose to open to a whole new level of light, love and inner power in the present and in the coming year.

Releasing the Outgoing Year...

Spirit, I ask now for a complete release of all old promises, agreements, vows or oaths that keep me bound to a small reality, a small Universe, a small experience of my true multidimensional nature.

Spirit, I ask now for a complete release of all old energies, blocking patterns, programs, dynamics, negative imprints, negative energies including any stress, judgement, criticism, blame, fear, guilt, shame, anger, resentment, frustration and any other lower frequency energy not mentioned that I have either generated in my own consciousness or absorbed from others during the outgoing year that can now be cleared, released or transformed into a higher light.

Spirit, now release all energies and programming that promotes ill-health in all of its myriad forms. Release anything creating distortion or sickness in the body, heart and mind.

Spirit, now release all energies and programming that promotes suffering in all of its myriad forms. Clearing anything that promotes abandonment, including self-abandonment, rejection, including the rejection of any aspect of self. Anything that creates any sense of limitation, distortion, restriction, or suppression. Any pointless self-sacrifice. Anywhere I have given my energy away needlessly. Anywhere I seek to rescue another. Anything that creates any distraction from what is truly important to my authentic core.

Spirit, now release any impositions, guidelines, rules, limits, whether spoken or unspoken, that create any sense of restriction in my being. Anything received within my family, anything received from the cultural collective. Anything that seeks to make me small, invisible, anything that goes against the sovereign nature of my light and my highest destiny.

Spirit, now release and remove all of this from all layers of my being. Clear and release all such energies down to the cells and DNA. Do this clearing through all minds, bodies, timelines, incarnations and universes. Completely and 100% removing anything that would seek to recreate any of this.

Healing the Past...

Spirit, wherever healing and restoration is needed in my physical body and any energy bodies due to any stress, overwhelm, or any difficult or challenging experience from the past including especially the outgoing year please apply a healing and transformational light to rectify, and upgrade my being. Allowing this healing and transformational light to reach all relevant levels, layers and dimensions of my being.

Spirit, now assist me in reframing anywhere I have labelled an experience as a failure. There is no failure only feedback. There is no failure, only a learning experience. Every so called set-back, every so called failure is there to help me perceive something in a new way, believe something about myself and the world in a new way, do something in the world in a new way.
