

Affirmations: 12-12 Portal/Christ Consciousness

Affirmations directly address the unconscious mind, the part of you that never sleeps, the part of you that is always listening to the thoughts you think, the words you speak, the choices you make, the everyday action you take. The unconscious mind is the part of you that generates and regenerates your physical, etheric, emotional, and mental bodies. The unconscious mind is mostly responsible for creating your reality. Allow this affirmation track to go deep into your body, deep into the cells, deep into the beliefs you hold, deep into your fluid energy field.

I am here at this time of the 12/12 Portal and the approach of the celebration of the birth of a master teacher, a master soul, Jesus the Christ who came 2000 years ago. I bow to this Avatar of light and love, Jesus the Christ who came to this dimension of the earth-plane and planted a powerful seed of light.

At this powerful time of rising light, I recognise that all souls are on their journey, whether they recognise the message of the Jesus the Avatar, whether they recognise some other master teacher, prophet or Avatar or whether they do not yet recognise any spiritual teacher, nor the light within their being. All souls are on their unique journey, all souls are experiencing where they need to be. All souls are part of the human family, all souls have the equal right to grow and be happy on the earth-plane, all souls have the equal potential for spiritual liberation, and eventual spiritual mastery.

At this time of 12-12, I feel a growing light on the earth-plane, the growing light of Christ Consciousness. This expansive feeling of light brings the growing potential of peace on earth, the growing potential of prosperity, the growing potential of unity consciousness. Unity consciousness sees all souls as sparks of Divine light, all are equal within God/Goddess's Universe.

At this powerful time, my eyes are open, my ears can truly hear this message. I sense this growing light in the air, I sense it in the vibrations around me, I sense it in the smile of a stranger, I sense it in the light of the twinkling stars above me, I sense it in the shifting vibrations of the earth beneath my feet, I now feel it in my heart and mind, I now feel it in the generous hearts of all those who vibrate with the light of spiritual awakening.

Through the power of my deepest meditation, I have received the light of Christ Consciousness and in doing so I have begun to be uplifted, directed and inspired in new ways. I now know that we are all sons and daughters of the Living God, Source Energy, God/Goddess All That Is, the creator of the multiverse, the source of omnipresent love and life.

This 12-12 portal heralds an intensification of the return of Christ Consciousness. At this time, I am more deeply connected to the Archangels. I feel the presence of Archangel Raphael holding my mind in light. I feel the presence of Archangel Michael aligning my will with the greater will of my Higher Self. I feel the presence of Archangel Gabriel holding my emotional body in peace and light. I feel the presence of Archangel Uriel holding my body as a sacred temple for my bright spirit. I feel the presence of Archangel Sandalphon assisting me in walking upon the earth in love and safety. I feel the presence of Archangel Metatron guiding me assisted by the archangels of the three suns, archangels from our sun, archangels from the Central sun, and archangels from the Great Central sun.

At this 12-12 portal, I am open to the growing vibration and light of joy, to the growing vibration and light of peace, to the growing vibration and light of love, to the growing vibration and light of prosperity and goodwill, to the growing vibration and light of unity consciousness and generosity of spirit. I open to the many blessings of this 12-12 portal and to the blessings of Christ Consciousness. I know that the return of Christ Consciousness is not just in one physical body, but in many.

After 2000 years Christ Consciousness returns to the earth and is being born anew in me. This light began to return and intensify as we approached the 2012 trigger point and with each year since has grown in power and love. In this glorious light of the 12-12 portal, all the boundaries of my old self are dissolving, and the omnipresent Christ Consciousness is fully active within the sphere of my consciousness. As I embody this gift of grace, I receive many blessings.

At this 12-12 portal my mind is open, open to joy, open to peace, open to grace, open to prosperity, open to unity consciousness. My mind has become a temple for the living light and spirit of Christ Consciousness. My heart is open, open to joy, open to peace, open to prosperity, open to unity consciousness. My heart has become a temple for the living light of Christ Consciousness. My body is open, open to joy, open to peace, open to prosperity, open to unity consciousness. My body has become a temple for the living light of Christ Consciousness. At this time of grace, my entire being has become a temple of the living Christ Spirit. Every atom and cell of my being is open to this new light, this new message of hope, this new message of brotherhood and sisterhood, this new message of the dawning Age of Light that is now upon us.

With the return of Christ Consciousness, I now bask in the pure love and light of God/Goddess's healing presence. This returning light of Christ Consciousness repels everything of a lower nature and uplifts my whole being to the higher dimensions. All veils of ignorance and despair are now removed from my mind, heart and body. I am now released from all lower frequency shadows. As I embody this returning light, no manifestation of darkness, evil or lack has any power over me. I remember that I am a sovereign being. My inner being is aglow with the light of the Christ, and this opens me to many new possibilities of living life joyfully and gracefully. My ability to manifest the greater good in my own reality and in the world is increased manyfold.

The Christ light uplifts my whole being so that new people, opportunities, situations and experiences are magnetised into my reality that are in alignment with this higher light. With this light, I am connected to the highest dimensions of Source in this Universe and across all Universes and I am thus held lovingly and safely for all eternity.

As I receive the Christ light, my vibration is raised to receive the higher octaves of bliss and miracle consciousness. This and more are the gifts of the returning Christ Consciousness, I begin to know that I truly live in a safe and loving Universe. Within this protective light, I am held in bliss, love and safely for all eternity.

Mighty currents of Christ light flow through me now. I am ever one with the Christ in love and peace. The Christ Consciousness in me brings forth new visions of peace, love and plenty for the planet. Through this consciousness, I place all people, things and situations lovingly in the hands of God/Goddess All That Is. May all beings in the world come to experience the light of peace, the light of all embracing love, the light of goodwill and prosperity.

My oneness with Christ Consciousness blesses me and those around me. The Christ in me assists me to prosper now and always. I bless what I have and the energy of Christ Consciousness reveals to me a vision of infinite blessings and infinite prosperity. In this light I have become the living embodiment of spiritual blessings. The whole universe delights in sending me my highest good. I give thanks that my oneness with Christ Consciousness connects me to the infinite supply within the multiverse. Within this returning light of Christ Consciousness I become the full expression of God/Goddess's blessed kingdom on Earth.

Take a moment to ground and come to your centre. Connecting more deeply into the crystalline grid. Connecting to the crystalline core of the earth. Allowing these affirmations to go deep into your being, into every cell of your body. Then invite a gentle brilliant white-lavender light to wash through your energy fields like a gentle rain.

Many Blessings
